

Angie, well there so much I could say to you and thank you for being there for me that I wouldn't have to even write to you except that you saved so much space for me here in your book so I'll take the time to put this whole years past experiences down for you and everyone else who is nosy enough to look and read this I'll start with the beginning we started out at this high school again hoping to have better times than last year and tried to leave all last years experiences behind also because they were either too sad to think about or just too damn embarrassing and didn't want to remember them let alone have anyone else find out about them 😊 Well no matter the sad or the embarrassing we always have the goobles funny to remember, and look back onto remember your birthday cake I made you, and going to your house and Ricky, Diane, Barb, & Phil coming ~~over~~ over most of all that night remember Ceannne, (it just popped at

ANGLE, Too BAD the one's we loved miss it! But we must go on, huh? It has been too known to you. A real pleasure to a friend

 COV!

Angie
 I was? Well our friendship was a surprise to others huh? Well one thing
 I wanna tell you is that I'm glad I lost Steve to you
 'cause if I didn't we wouldn't be friends, so to me it was worth it anyway I'm glad you took Steve off my hands
 what a relief, at least it wasn't me who had to hear him sniff his burgers
 HA! HA! HA!

"Angie,
 Crazy Angie" remember those times when you swept the halls with your body? lol those were the times when we ditched class together well I know one'll come back again in "88". Keep up the great job your doing on Joanettes nija I'm really proud of you for achieving so much, continue this cause it's great.
 Keep on touch 423-4455 Love ya always God Bless ya frenz - u - em Jossie "88" I ♡

Angie,

Well it's another year isn't it? But this one was better huh? Too bad things with you and Steve didn't work out too good. We had some good times. "fAKE MOREWA" That damn Mike! It lasted FOREVER! "Chickin'" you and Jose's burps. (Totally Disgusting) "Scruballs" (whatever) listening to all that winga talk. (How funny) you not knowing if you really liked him or not. Well so you're going to "Italy" huh. That's pretty funny. Oh my god remember "I just want you extra time and you're KISS". Making those posture's at the "pops concert". Well maybe next year we'll have some more good times.

this year!

ANGIE,

WELL OUR BORNING SOPH. YEAR IS OVER BUT I MUST SAY IT DID GO BY FAST DON'T YOU THINK? WELL I'M GLAD I MET YA. YOU'RE A CRAZY AND FUN PERSON TO BE AROUND. I HOPE YOU STAY IN SCHOOL AND DON'T LEAVE LIKE LANDR. (I HOPE SHE SEE THIS). NEXT YEAR SHOULD BE FUN. WILL BE BIG JUNIOR. OLDER AND MORE EXPERIENCED. ANYWAYS HAVE A LONG AND FUN SUMMER. PARTLY HARDY AND I'LL SEE YOU AT THE PARTYS. HOPE TO HAVE YOU IN SOME CLASSES. NEXT YEAR AGAIN. SEE YA LATER AND TELL PAT HI FOR ME. LOVE AND KISSES

Quiline

Angie,

The year is over finally and its summer, so live it up and party every week. I'm glad we became friends this year and that it stays that way. Keep playing vally ball and don't stop smiling.

Table of Contents

Lights! Camera! Action! The Speculum Volume twenty-three contains an entire cast of teachers, 1,800 Trojans, life at Troy, and countless memories that last as long as the script of life.

This Speculum Production is an attempt to look back and understand what happened to a school that has matured in so many distinct ways during the 1985-86 school year. Various scenes of this memorable year will be reenacted in still motion throughout the course of this publication. Among the scenes captured in black and red are the romantic dances, the exhilarating football games, the crowd rousing assemblies, and the omnipresent smiles and frowns of Trojans coping with the many ups and downs that result in the continuing saga of the Tradition of Excellence at Troy.

Sports 139

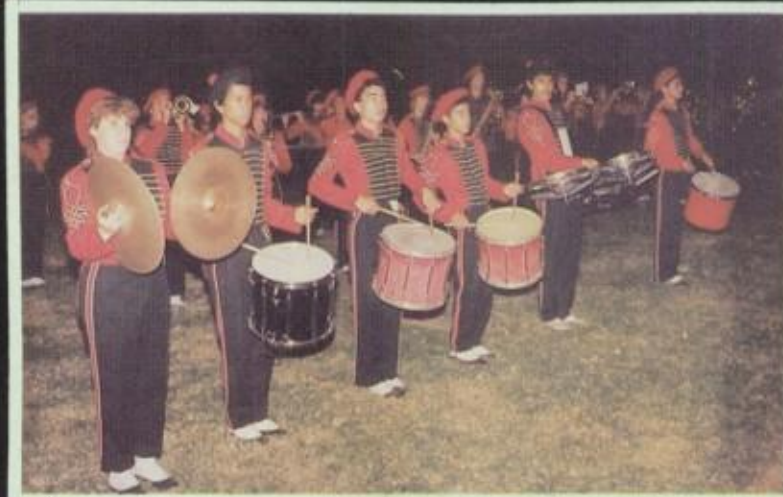

Most definitely, the 1985-86 academic school year had a profound effect on all of the students at Troy. For the freshman it was a year of awe, excitement, and surely a little fear in the beginning, quite like the awe, excitement, and fear the aspiring actor or actress has upon arrival at Hollywood when seeking stardom. The sophomores endured many trials and tribulations along with many festive occasions, much like the actor or actress who finally obtains the role of a lifetime that will land his or her career in show business. This was a year for the junior class of 1987 to mature. They are the coming stars and they set the standard for others to follow. For the seniors, 1986 culminated three years of crucial decision making in regards to their future.

One can conclude that after all the characters have done their best to further their education at Troy, the production will end resulting in stardom for all who have actively participated in our educational pursuit.

Trojanettes . . . Pride Is Their Best Defense

Letterettes Take It Beyond the Limit

To: angie, a nice, cute, kind a sweet friend, it was real nice having you in some of my classes. I hope you have a great summer, keep in touch so we can go to the beach one of these days & have a good time with our hunnys.
 I hope I have you in some of my classes next year. Take care of you self, stay out of trouble and may God be always with you. your friend. always

Risky Business

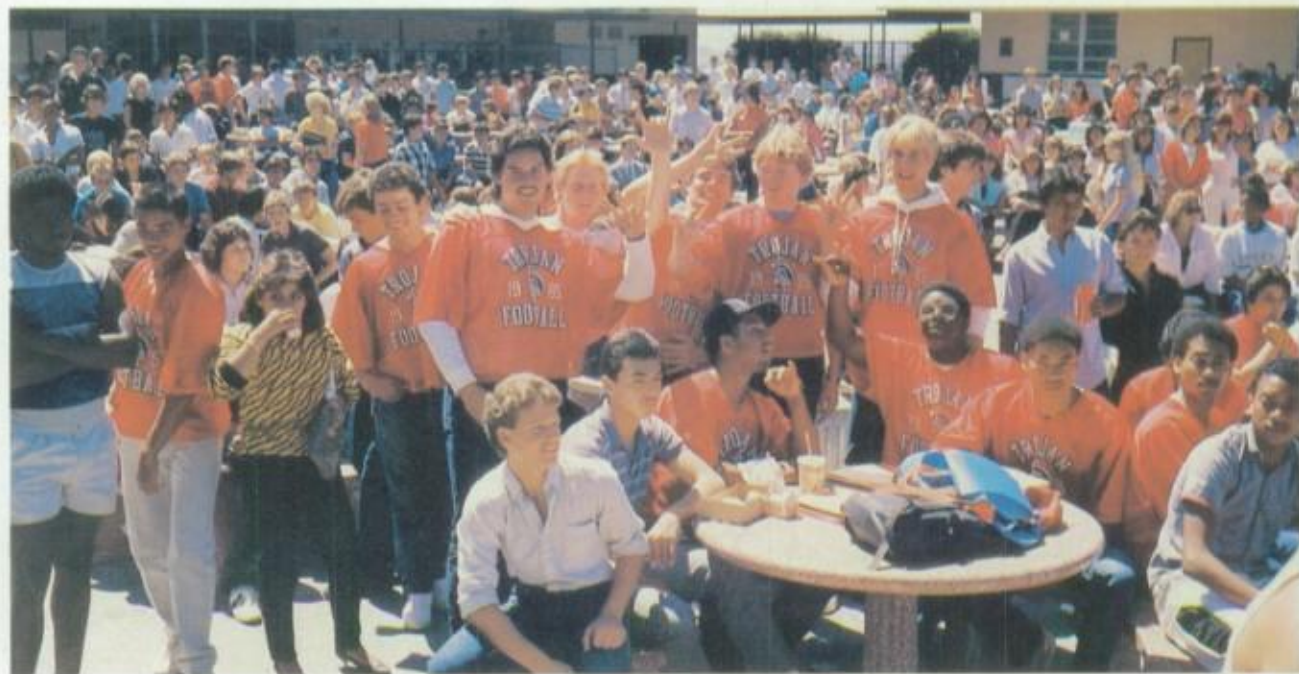

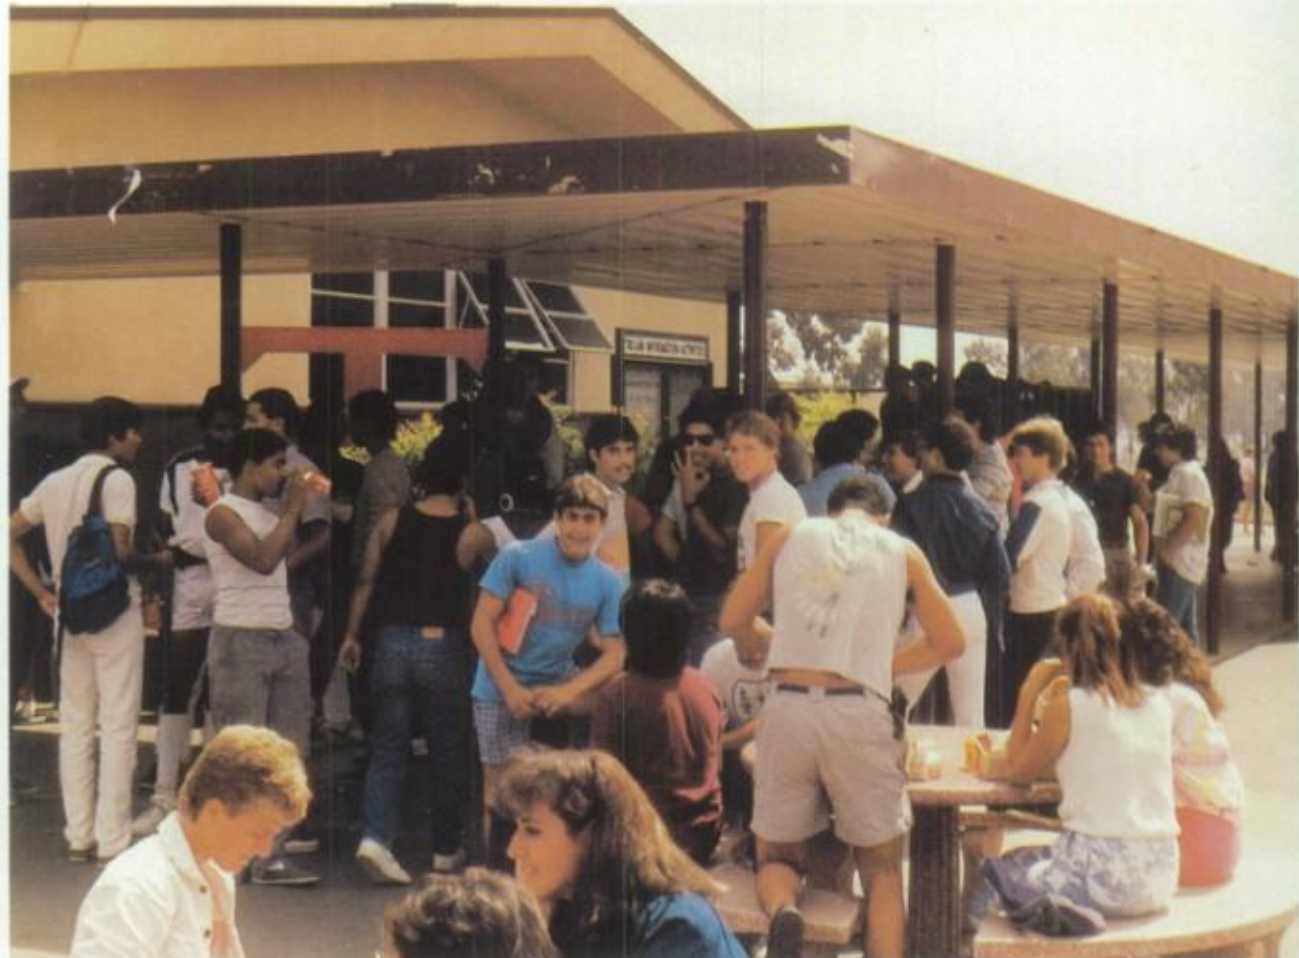

O.K.! Kevin Ryan, Eddie Crenshaw, and Joe Heredia surely agree with Miko Martinez that at Troy all is well.

Let the music play. DJ's Frank Rodriguez and Arthur Casillas liven up a lunch with some dancing music.

Flashing that pride. Football players don't just show their spirit on the field, but anytime they want, like lunch.

Trojan art. As a new addition at CPH, "the wall" adds to the school's overall excellence in appearance.

Jam on it! Sean Berrier and Adriana Ortega dance at lunch to the awesome music of Synsonic Sounds.

Journey for spirit. Trojans Artie Meredith and Juan Duckett traveled all the way to Mission Bay to help show off our Trojan pride.

Proudest of proud. Seniors love their privileges and the senior walk is one of their favorite places to show that they are the class of '86.

Homecoming Previews

Giving it all. The Trojan cheerleaders piled high with pride.

Time out. The Homecoming dance changes its tone as the candidates and their escorts are honored.

Change of pace. A song dedicated to the Princesses is played as they approach the dance floor.

Anticipation arises. Princess Elizabeth flashes her exciting smile as the final moment draws near.

Exciting expressions. Tommy Trojan and Helen of Troy unite with that strong spirit in their eyes.

Letter perfect. Letterettes enter the Pep assembly determined to display their excellence.

Alumni, students, and faculty of Castle Park gathered together for Homecoming 85-86. It was a celebration of the beginning of another year of tradition here at Troy. The week of this special occasion was filled with enthusiasm and a feeling of unity spread across the campus. Every activity brought us closer to each other and closer to the announcement of our Homecoming Queen. The theme "Live It Up!" fit the scene Friday night as Castle Park came out victorious over Bonita and Olivia Amador was crowned Queen.

Stylish Smile. Sally and her father walk arm in arm as she is acknowledged.

Trojan leaders. Seniors echo words of Trojan spirit.

Special Engagement

Beauty and elegance. The Homecoming court of 86 proudly presents Olivia Amador as Queen with her royal court.

A joyous moment. After being announced Queen Olivia's proud father congratulates her.

The tension mounts. Excitement fills the air as Princess Claudia and her father eagerly await to be introduced.

Walking in style. Donna's father escorts her down the royal red carpet.

Words of Wisdom. Live It Up is the feeling at Homecoming as the Trojans defeat the Lancers 13-6.

Loud and clear. The crowd cheers with enthusiasm as the Trojan band performs with intensity during the halftime show.

A spectacular display. Homecoming festivities end with an exciting fireworks extravaganza.

Two of a kind. Gary Alvarez, our Tommy Trojan, and Donna Shiepe, our Helen of Troy, represent Castle Park in a stylish manner.

Presenting Our Mascots

Terrific Twosome. Gary and Donna share many memories at pep assemblies, football games, and school activities together throughout the year.

Strolling Along. We will always remember Tommy and Helen's lively demeanor as they walk down the aisle at assemblies.

All smiles. Our Helen of Troy always finds time to sit down and finish her English with an enthusiastic smile.

Go Trojans! During a cheer at a football game, Lori Nava catches Gary saying the wrong words.

Musical notes. An essential part of any band is the horn section. CPH's band is no exception with an extremely talented bunch of clarinet and trumpet players.

Live it up! The senior class of 86 will end their high school life with pride and optimism.

Filled with enthusiasm. The J.V. cheerleaders always add some pep to the assemblies on Friday.

Hoo-rah. Lisa Fox, president of the pep club, smiles pretty for the camera.

Trojan express. Penny Portwood, Pam Murphy, and Elizabeth Garcia show their Trojan pride by displaying the victory sign.

All in one. Varsity pep leaders prepare to do a stunt to welcome the students to a football pep assembly.

Candid Camera

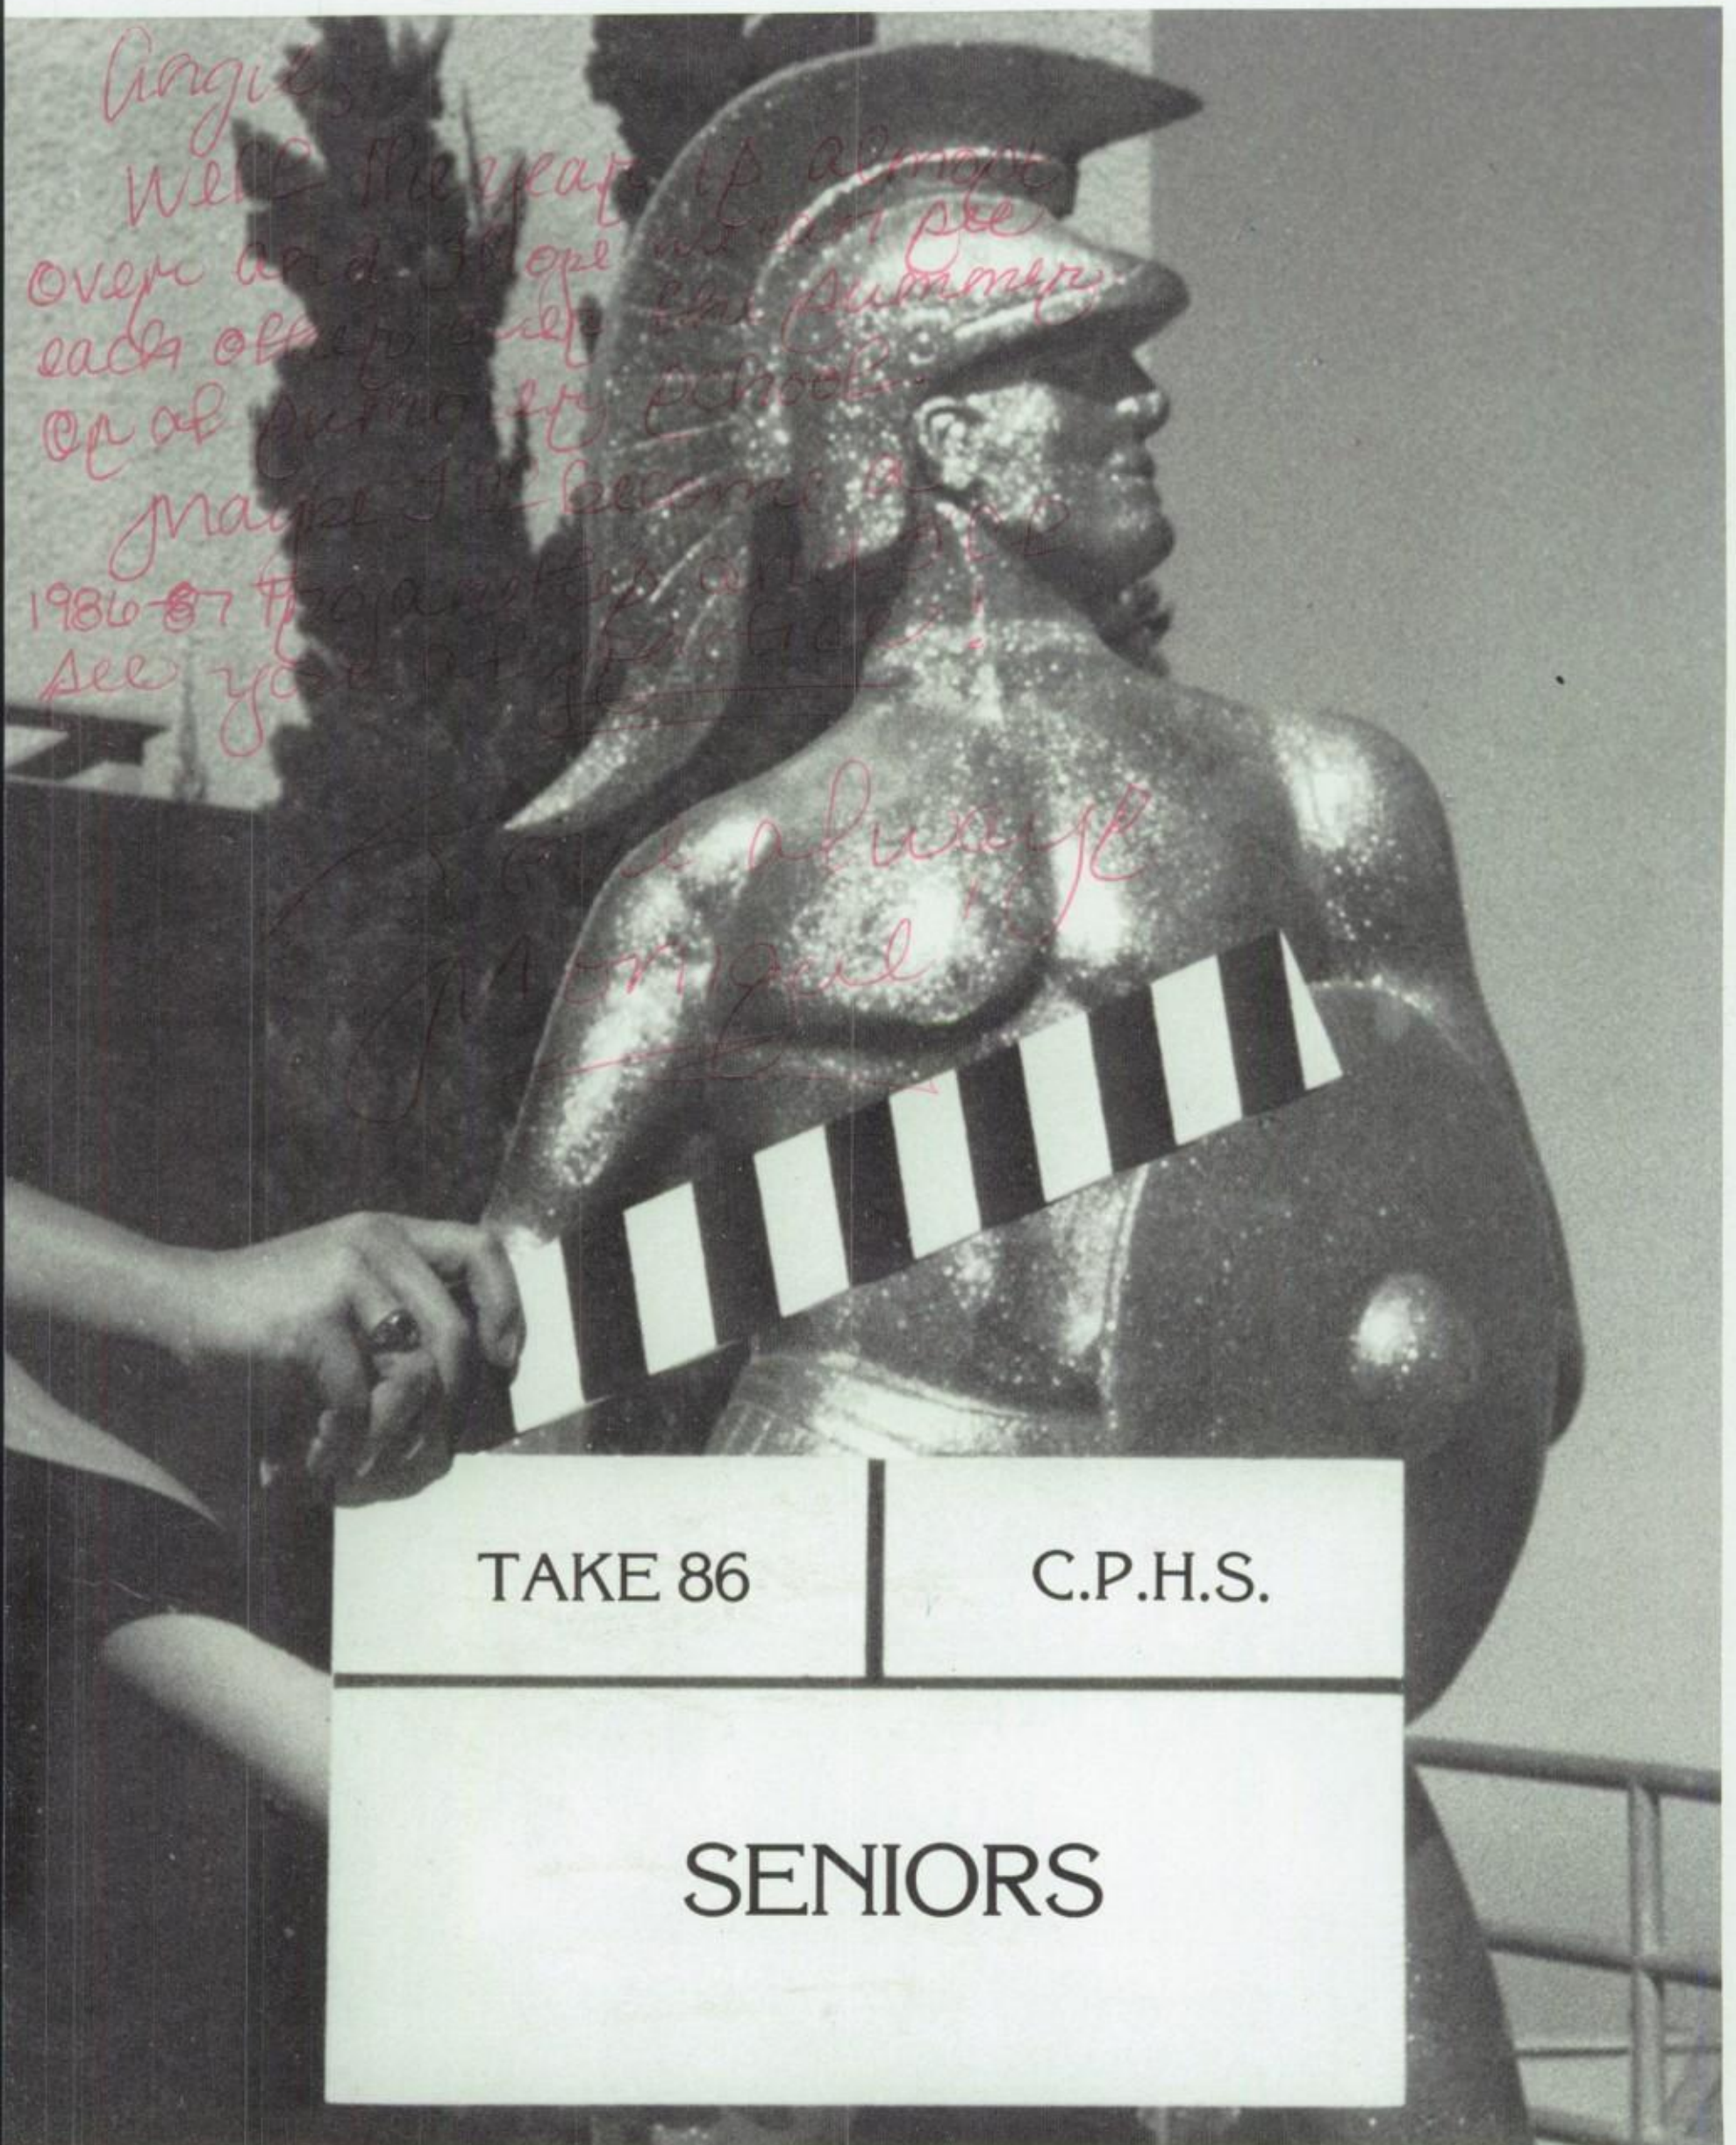

After hours. School activity does not cease at the 2:25 bell. After school is a time to socialize with friends, and so it is with Gustavo Morgutia and Marozana Banaga.

A privilege. Bestowed upon the Trojans is the use of a locker. Kathy Jarman takes full advantage of this privilege.

Bite of delight. School fills our minds with knowledge. Lunch fills Lydia Morales with delight and rest.

Gingie,
Well the year is almost over and I hope we can see each other over the summer or at primary school.
maybe I'll become a 1986-87 project and I'll see you at school!

SENIORS

be a TROJAN

Star Treatment

Oh that noise! Seniors take advantage of their privileges by banging their chairs at a pep assembly.

For seniors only. From their reserved section, Seniors enjoy an assembly.

Setting the scene. Lori Nava, Elizabeth Castro, Jonathon Lynn, and Ron Depinto set up for the senior social at lunch on the senior lawn.

More than ever. The seniors make use of the senior lawn at lunch and nutrition to study and socialize with each other.

Busy on the Set!

Pizza groupies. Pizza was a big hit at the senior social this year. Among the fans were Sue, Ruth, Brenda and Marissa.

In a jam. Marissa Perez plays it smart and retrieves her books after the crowd has gone.

Hamming it up. Everyone seems to love getting into the picture. George Lopez is no exception as the camera catches him in the student parking lot.

Study break. Although it is lunch, Stephanie Boggs finds time to finish up her homework.

The California Scholastic Federation is an organization for those students who excel in academics. In order to belong to CSF, a student's semester grades for five of their academic classes must have a "B" average. The end reward for belonging to CSF is graduation with honors. CSF members wear black robes with gold cords and sit in the first row at graduation. In order to be a life member of CSF a student must qualify four out of six semesters in high school. An education is important and these students are to be congratulated for their hard work, dedication, and continued effort.

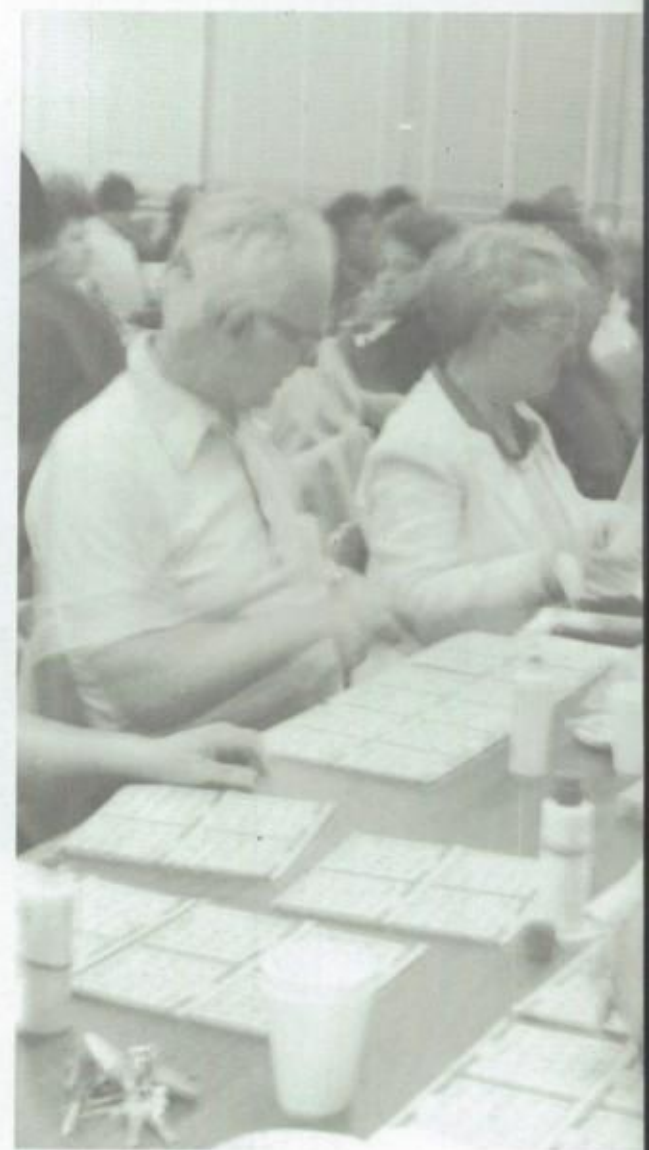

Deal of the Century

Dollars and sense. Players cross their fingers hoping to make big bucks.

Bingo! Mr. Swift announces the lucky number. Proceeds from weekly bingo support many Trojan Foundation activities.

Having a good time. On Tuesday night avid bingo players come to CPH hoping that lady luck is on their side.

Changing jobs. Roger Hedgecock who had been San Diego's mayor for almost three years was charged and convicted of accepting illegal campaign funds. He was sentenced to a one year suspended sentence and is now working as a talk show host on KSDO Radio Station.

Cashing in. Like many other states, California this year started a state lottery. In the first few months it has become an enormous success with 30% of the money earned going towards education.

New addition. On August ninth Horton Plaza opened with its numerous stores and restaurants and has quickly become one of the cities favorite places to shop and spend the afternoon.

The Year In Review

Face The Nation. This fall, United States President Ronald Reagan and Soviet Party Leader Mikhail Gorbachev met in Geneva to discuss issues concerning the two countries.

Passing through. This year for the first time in 76 years, Halley's Comet will be visible to us as it passes through the earth's orbit.

Getting a facelift. As the Statue of Liberty reached its centennial birthday, repairmen worked to restore her to her original condition.

Helping hand. One of the biggest successes of the year was Live-Aid. In its 16 hour telecast, it raised 70.5 million dollars to help the starving people of the world.

Thieves of Sweet nothings. Rosa Mata and Arthur Casillas enjoy the coziness of the Senior Walk a for a special time.

Alone at last. Kim Komisars and Mike Mudry get away from the crowd to have time alone for each other.

Love birds. Mike Martin and Kelly Renner discuss the meaning of life over lunch.

Always and Forever. Phillip Alcala and Arlene Thrift always find time for each other no matter where they go.

Hearts

Tea for two. Dolly Mitra and Jimmy Kinnamon have a quiet lunch together as they make plans for the weekend.

Sweethearts. John Matheson and Marcy Tagabon enjoy the luxury of Girls' League together.

Friends as well. Marie Malstrom helps John Stanton celebrate his birthday at lunch.

Together. Mike McLaughlin and Kongphet Inkhanhong enjoy being with each other as well as with friends.

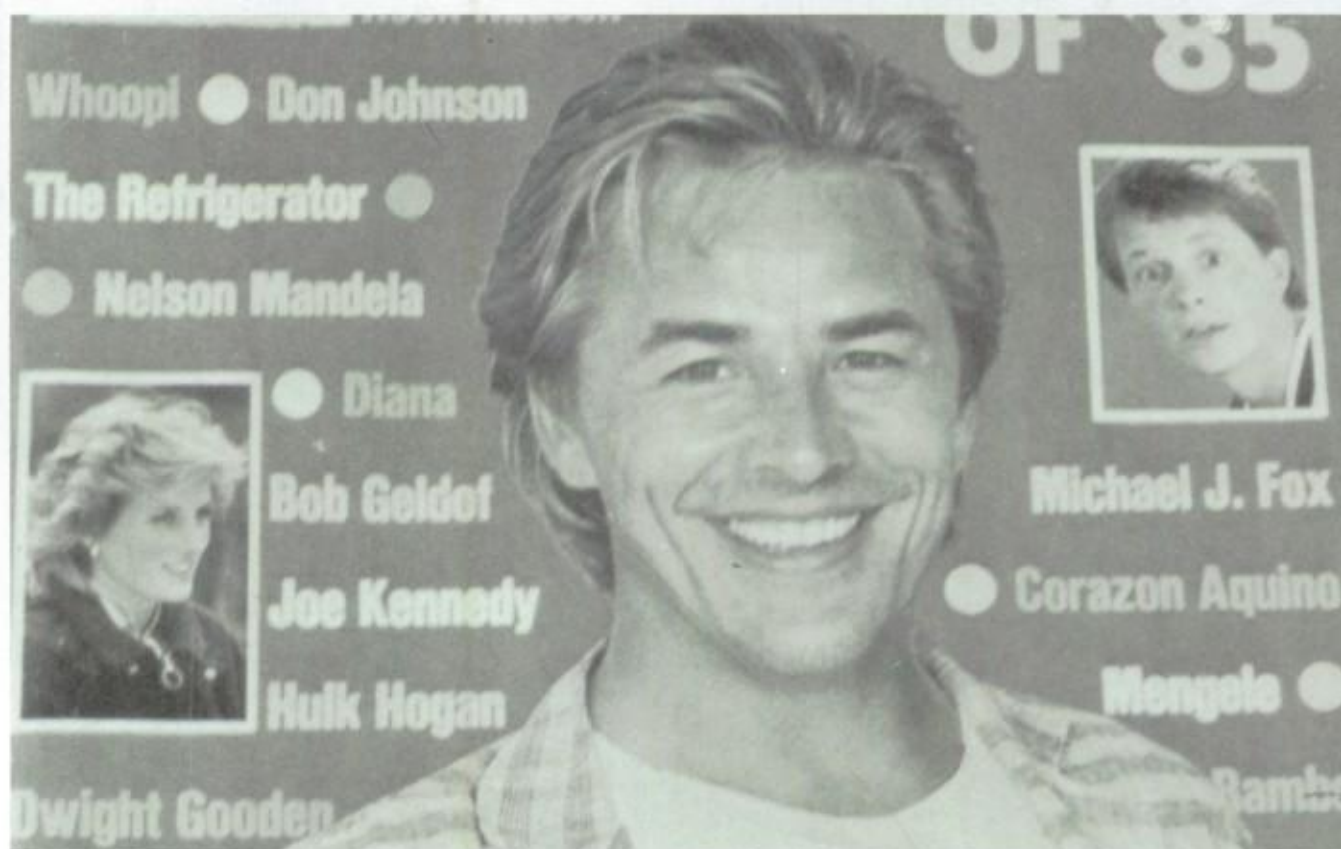

Made For Television

I got it! The Cosby Show was an instant hit among tv watchers with its funny lines and mixture of interesting characters including the ever so charming Dr. Huxtable and his son, Theo.

How cute! Michael J. Fox and TV girlfriend definitely add some spice to comedy show Family Ties.

CPH's Top Shows:
 1. Cosby Show
 2. Family Ties
 3. Miami Vice
 4. The News
 (for government class)
 5. Cheers

What a face. Don Johnson, the gorgeous star on Miami Vice, has become a popular detective on TV land.

Setting the Style

Switch To Swatch. One of hottest items this year was the Swatch Watches. They come in a variety of colors and styles and retail for about $30.00

Stirrups Stir Up. Almost any girl you ask on campus would have to admit to owning at least one pair of these light cotton stirrup pants. They can be worn by themselves, under a skirt or in place of tights.

Fancy Feet. The latest footgear to hit Castle Park this year was boots. Anything from ankle length to mid-calf boots could be seen being worn around campus.

Rave Reviews

Book turns movie! Pulling in a number of nominations for the academy award, The Color Purple was based upon Alice Walker's Pulitzer prize winning book.

Portable movies. Renting out videos for home viewing has been popular among people this year.

Lean and mean. Coming out in the sequel to First Blood, Sylvester Stallone shows his skill as a fighting machine as John Rambo.

THE DREAM TEAM

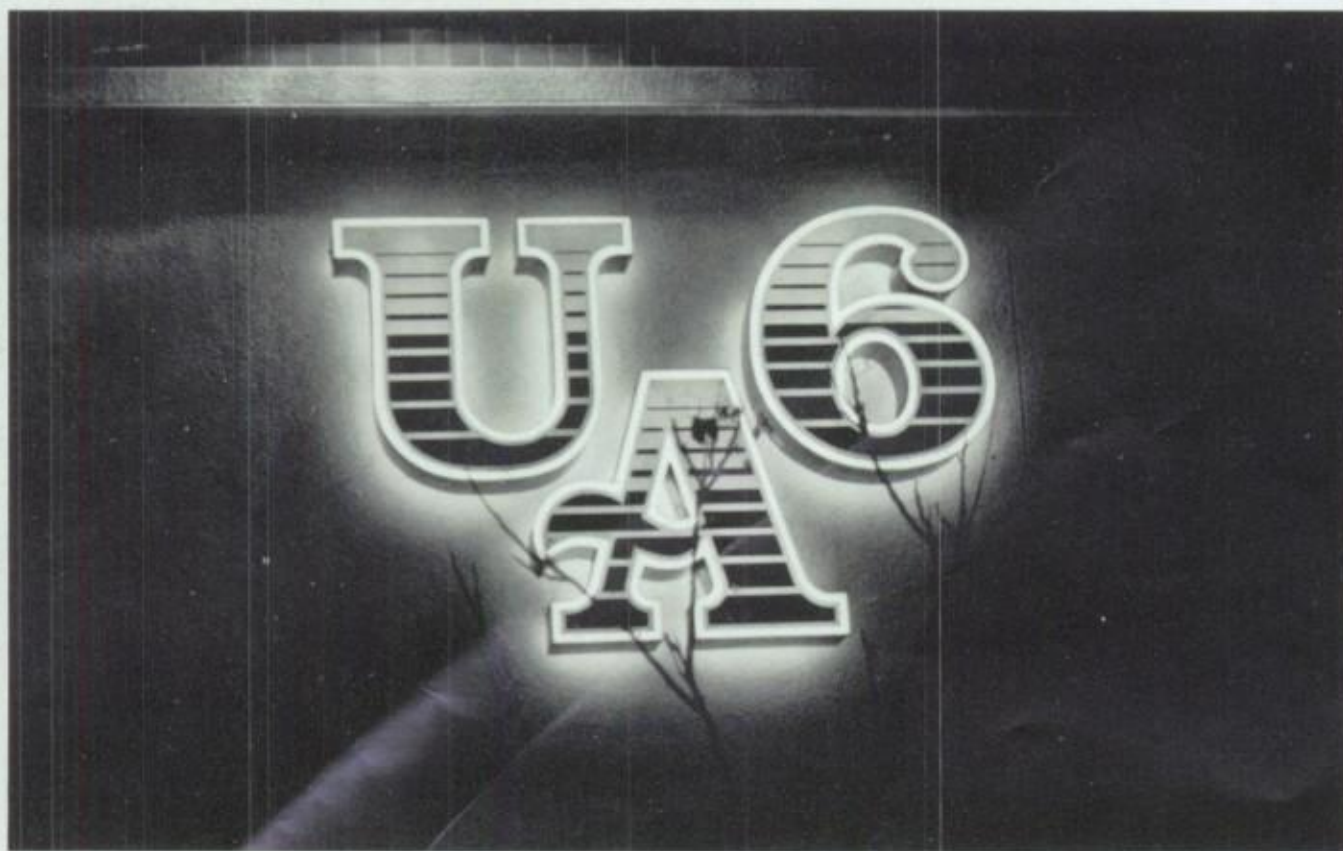

IS IN THE HOUSE!

And much more. The Dream Team has meant more to Castle Park than just music this year.

Tuned in. Music of the 80's is 91X's claim. Many of us has made this radio station our choice for listening pleasure.

Main Attraction. Located in Downtown Chula Vista, the UA6 has been a favorite theatre for Castle Park students.

In search of . . . Recruiters help students establish careers in a wide variety of military occupations.

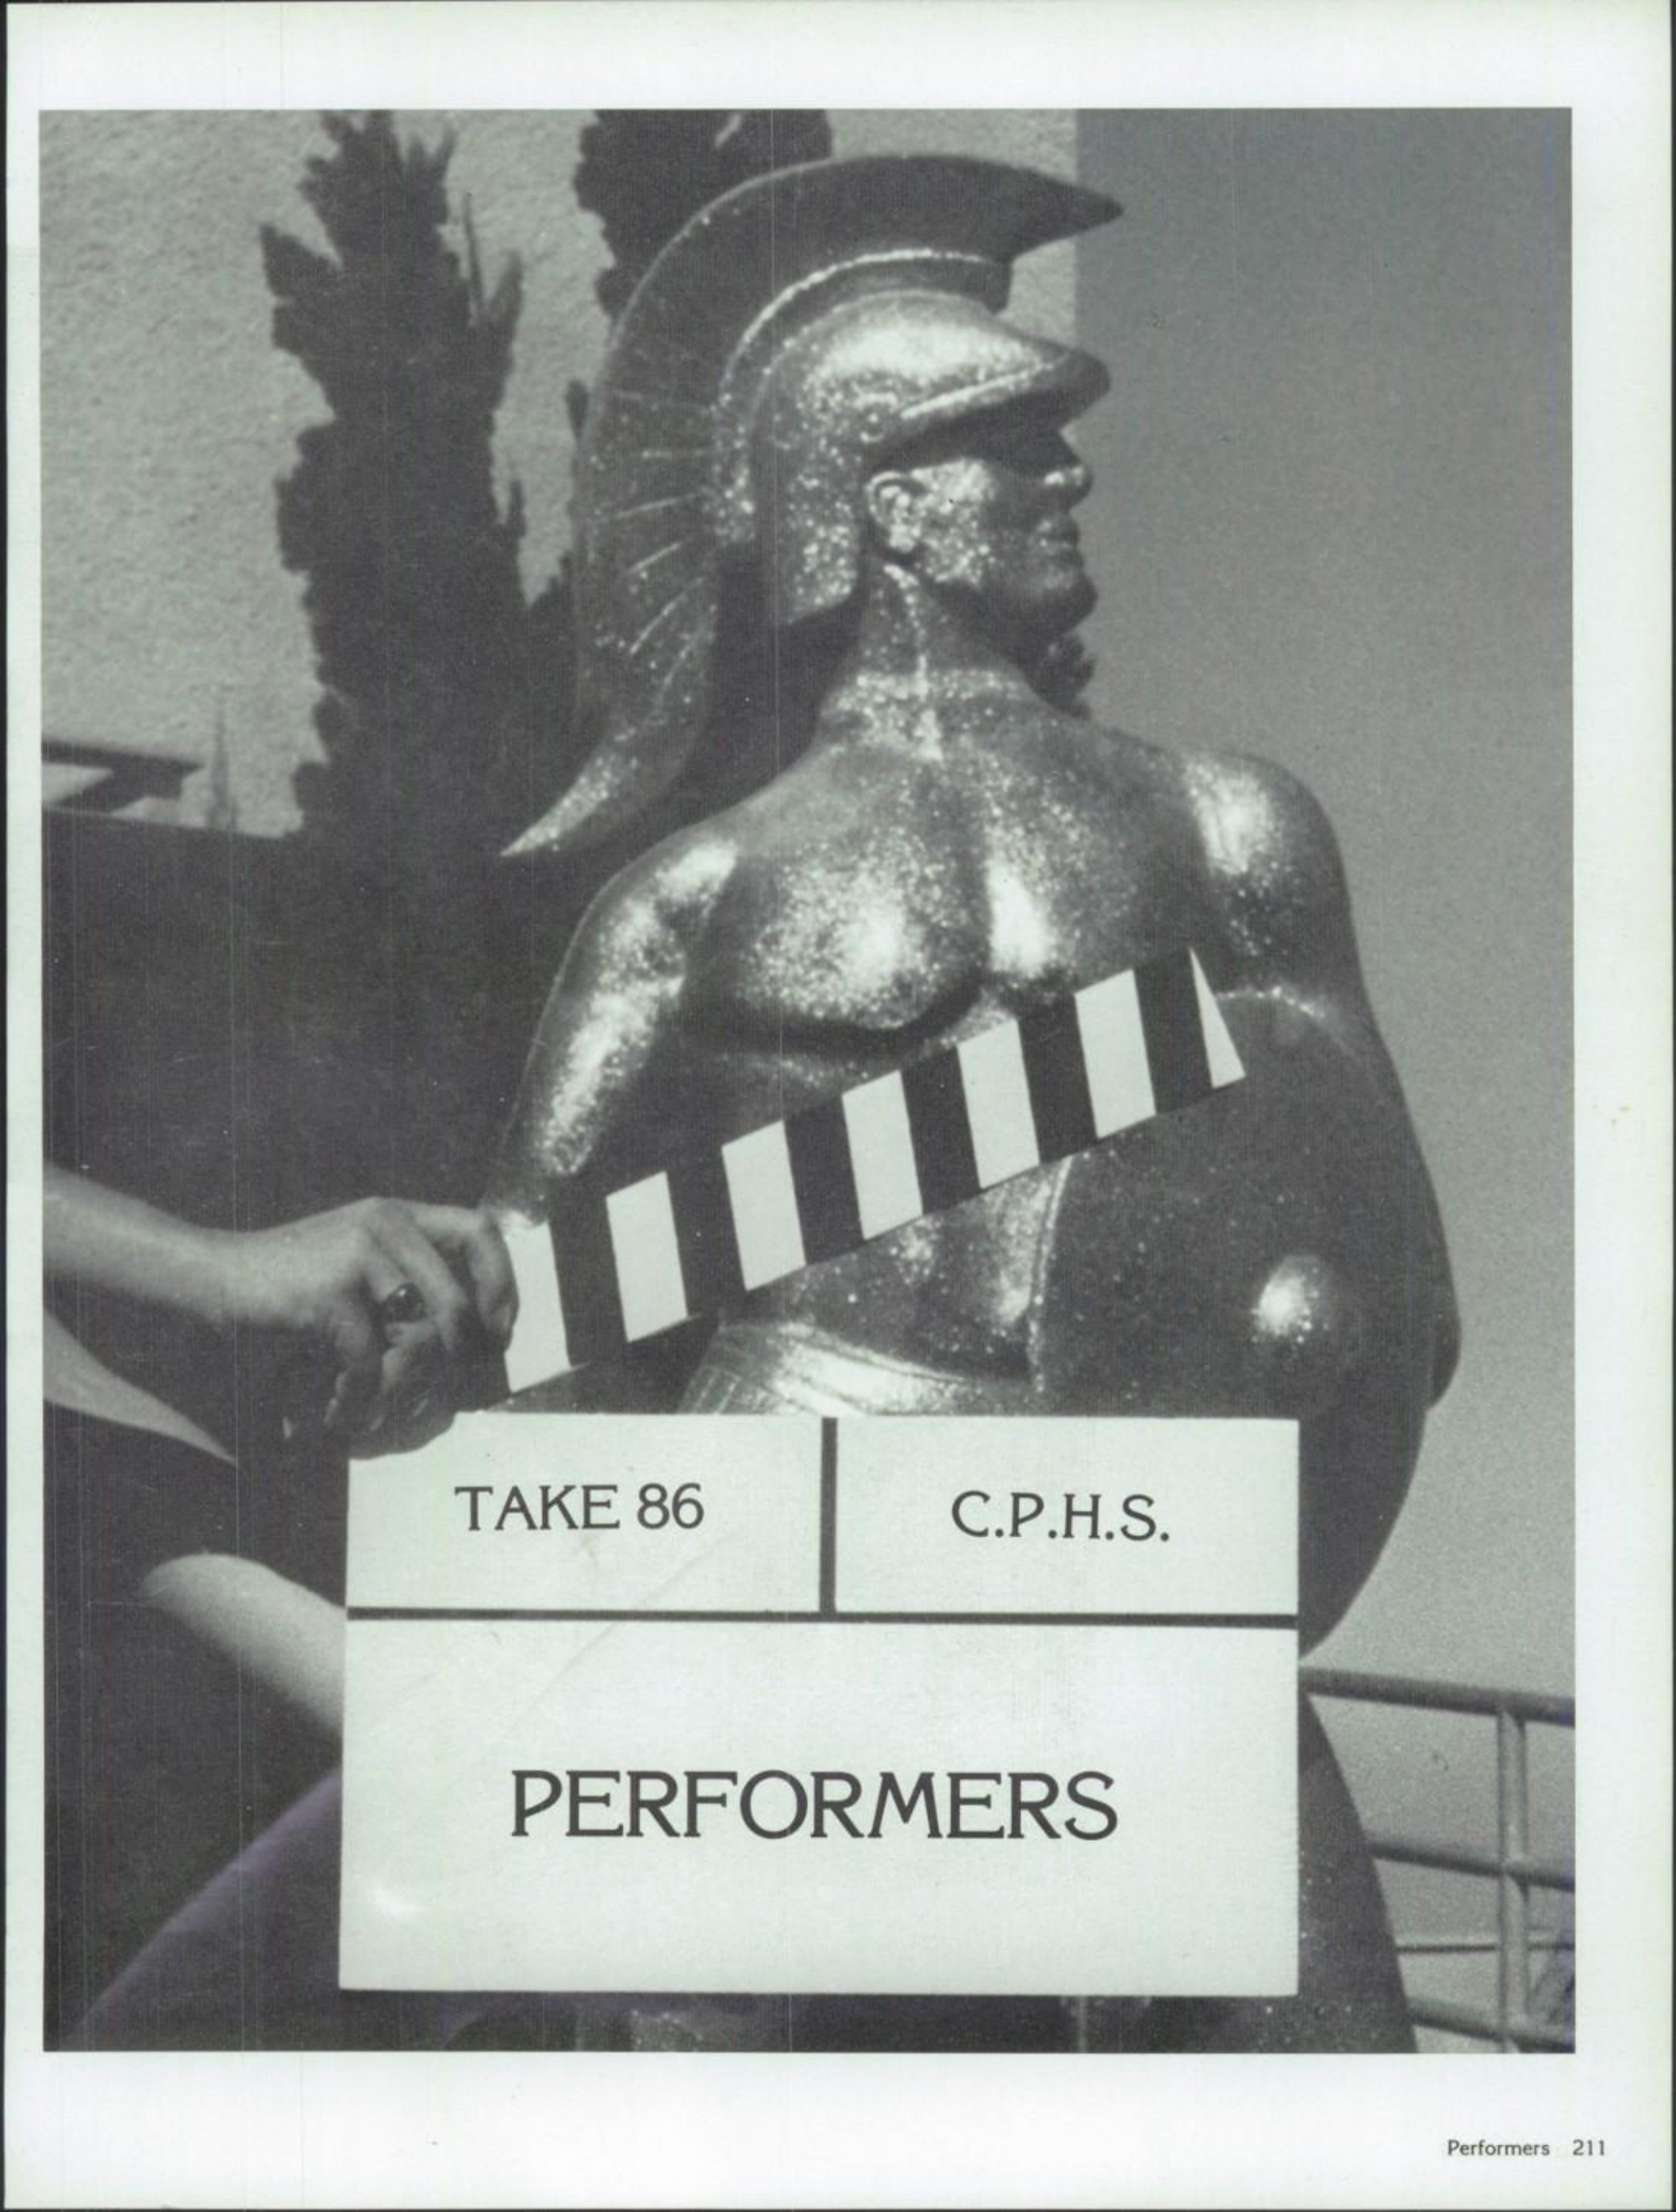

Officers and Gentlemen

Earn your wings. Air Force recruiter Ronald Harrison speaks with Tony Santos about the Advantages of Military service.

Taking a Break. Carmelo Martinez of the Marines, Roque Garcia of the Army, and Charlie Smallwood of the Navy pause from their recruiting to pose for a quick snapshot.

We'll prove our point
We'll make it stick
We're the awesome seniors
Of '86!

Front and center. The very front row of the senior section is reserved for varsity pep. Rachel Fernandez and Sally Smith make use of it at a pep assembly.

Bigger than life. Together with the JV pep, varsity creates a winning stunt at an assembly.

Hey you! Varsity pep leader Marsi Daos can get your attention before an assembly with the use of her megaphone.

Ready? O.K.! As captain of varsity pep, Grace Espineli is always ready to lead her squad on the sidelines.

Let's all join together. Symbolizing pride and unity, the varsity cheerleaders join together with flashing smiles.

J.V. Pep:

Taking charge. At the assembly on the first day of school, JV captain Cathy Thompson waits for a chance to introduce her squad.

Get into the beat. At pep assemblies and games, JV pep proves beyond a doubt that they have rhythm.

Takes It to the Top

Junior victory. At all assemblies, JV pep takes their traditional seats at the bottom of the junior section bleachers.

Standing tall. JV cheerleaders, Elizabeth Cansicio, shows grace and balance while standing on the shoulders of Cathy Thompson.

Up and above. JV pep says 'hello' in a special way during a cheer at an assembly.

The Turning Point

Standing in formation. The addition of five new male members has proved to help the group be more versatile in their performances.

Practice makes perfect. Like many others, Claudia Lopez spends much time practicing her skirt work.

To Our Special Friends,

We will always appreciate the way you came into our lives and touched us in a very special way. The laughter and good times we will never forget and the tears and misunderstandings we will never regret. We learned to share and we learned to care. We learned to open up and reveal our feelings. For you are our true friends and you made our year that much more meaningful.

Love Always,

Best Friends Forever

Do you remember . . . Dolly's party, running to "his" house, BV, barting on Robert, telling him you loved him, Michelle spitting in Lee Ann's face, throwing her across the room, Dolly and Lee Ann starting the cake fight, Michelle fighting with Sol, making it for Trojanettes, Michelle's slumber party, swimming, the fashion show, Marsi throwing up, our great year w/Violet-parades, "quick march", Lee Ann's jealousy, Rad Indoor, the Maytime Party, going to TJ with Violet, ZOMBIES, trying to beat up Julie, Dolly at Jack-In-The Box, "The Baby Bottle", those great carnivals, Lee Ann's obsession w/basketball (and Vince), all our heart throbs over the years, JR, JL, BC, RR, VB, IA, J, M, M, JAY, DL, RV, KK, best of all A and Dolly passing out grapes and then distributing them in Lee Ann's trash can, Ricardo's party, Dolly falling off the coffee table, "quick drive", trying out for an office — Dolly co-capt. of trojanettes, Michelle — Lt. Lee Ann — senior class president, our other adventures, getting lost, car problems, call 911, Stratus — the first time, ZZZEEE, our headbands, After Dark, Distillery, Leyvas, Marcos and especially JP's — "The Nerds", you spin me, parking Lee Ann's spazzes, Dolly's temper, "hello", Michelle's driving-running out of gas, Lee Ann's broken heart, laughing our heads off till it hurt, Michelles disasters, Kathy's "nerd alert uh!!" — for VB, senior socials, always eating sixth period, Taco Bell, El Norteno, Kentucky Fried Chicken, Jack-In-The Box, oh remember those guys Michelle, remember that night, the fat guy who sat on the car, working Dolly at Taco Bell and Lee Ann and Michelle at Giant NY Pizza. So much things to look back on, Girls' League and so much more. The Fun we've shared and hard times. We made it through and most of all we did it together.

well that was a pretty entertaining night wasn't it (but) Don't all those other fun parties and just the goofy things we used to do together well I'll never forget them especially since I did them with my best friend (you)

And I think we really had a lot of fun at my birthday (party) member the soul train (you & phil) me and you know who well that was one of the best nights us and the guys (that certain group of us) all staying at my house until 5:30 (special night) well that only summarizes a little of our fun this past year but there's lots more to come in the future because there is so much ahead of us, But I just want you to know what a very good friend you have been to me during these past two years. You were really a good & true friend putting up with all my bullshit about you know who (how could I let you or me forget) ("I swear to god Lano")

Love & friends
